- B. The Parties intend for this Agreement to become effective upon their marriage pursuant to the laws of the State of _____, including any Uniform Premarital Agreement Act, or other applicable laws, adopted by the State of _____.

- E. The Parties recognize the possibility of unhappy differences that may arise between them. Accordingly, the Parties desire that the distribution of any property that either or both of them may own will be governed by the terms of this Agreement and, insofar as the statutory or case law permits, intend that any statutes that may apply to them, either by virtue of Federal or State legislation, will not apply to them.

- F. The Parties acknowledge that they have been provided with a reasonable period of time to review this Agreement.

- G. The Parties also acknowledge that they have had the opportunity to retain their own lawyer and to receive independent legal advice regarding the terms of this Agreement.
- H. The Parties have disclosed to their satisfaction all assets and liabilities that each may have and voluntarily and expressly waive any other rights to disclosure of the property or financial obligations of each other beyond the disclosure provided.
- I. Each Party agrees and affirms THAT:
- a. The Parties did execute the Agreement voluntarily;
 - b. This Agreement was not unconscionable when it was executed;

 - e. They entered into this Agreement freely and under no duress or undue influence on their decision by the other Party.
- J. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement will continue upon termination of marriage whether by death, divorce, or otherwise.

NOW THEREFORE in consideration of the upcoming marriage, and in consideration of the mutual promises and covenants contained in this Agreement, the Parties agree as follows:

1. The Parties acknowledge that this Agreement will govern any determination of ownership of property that may occur in the event of the Parties separating, or upon the death of a Party.
2. All jointly acquired or jointly held property, however and whenever acquired, will remain the property of and be owned by both Parties and will be treated as shared property (the "Shared Property").
